GROUPS ORGANIZE TO PROMOTE RACIAL UNITY

MINORITY YOUTH GROUPS FEDERATE IN NORTHWEST -- Peiping Kuang-ming Jih-pao,
13 Aug 50

Sian, 12 August (Hsin-hua) -- A concrete plan to unite the youth of different minority nationality groups in Northwest China was formulated at the Third Northwest Youth Delegates Conference, held in Sian 30 July - 6 August 1950.

Some 361 delegates representing 12 minority nationalities attended the conference. Of the delegates, 39 were war heroes or model workers, and others represented more than 700,000 organized youth in the Northwest.

The conference formally established the Northwest Democratic Youth Federation and appointed Lo I (1) [numbers refer to appended characters]; chairman; Sai-fu-ls-yeh-fu (2), Wang Wei-ch'i (3), and Ma T'eng-ai (4), deputy chairmen, in addition to 57 executive committee members. The federation also adopted a constitution.

The conference decided that the immediate tasks of the federation were to: arouse the entire 4 million youths in the Northwest to participate in production and construction activities and to join study classes; urge the young intellectuals to acquaint themselves with the minority nationalities policies, the revolutionary theories of the Central People's government and the CCP; and propagandize among their own racial groups, the spirit of equality, unity, mutual aid, and love of comrades.

ORGANIZES FRIENDSHIP COMMITTEE -- Hong Kong Wen-hui Pao, 23 Jul 50

Sian, 20 July (Hsin-hua) -- A Moslem Han Friendship Committee was recently formed in Huang-ni-wan Ts'un of Lin-hsia Hsien, Kansu Province, to bring about unity between the two groups in accordance with the nationalities policy of the Central People's government.

In the past, the reactionary Ma regime constantly caused dissension between the two groups. Since the liberation, the local CCP committee's working teams have carried on a propaganda campaign to promote better relations between the two groups and have succeeded in forming the friendship committee.

The principal functions of the committee are to: find amicable solutions to disputes, promote cooperation between the two groups to help each other in disaster areas, and increase production.
